

Rightly Wrong

Wild Party

Blessed although we curse too much
Slept in, yeah, I missed that bus
Runnin' from the thought police
Wake up just to fall right back to sleep

And, it doesn't have to make sense to me or you or anyone
Yet somehow still it makes sense to me and you
Cause even when you're right you're wrong
You're right to know it's alright to be wrong tho
Cause anyone can be the one to drop it

Stressin' 'cause I think too much
Slip until we're out of touch
Searchin' for a sight to see
Forgot that you were right in front of me

And, it doesn't have to make sense to me or you or anyone
Yet somehow still it makes sense to me and you
Cause even when you're right you're wrong
You're right to know it's alright to be wrong tho
Cause anyone can be the one to drop it

Softly, gimme the good stuff
Quickly, slowin' the right things down

Close although we don't talk much
Messages are not enough
Gimme somethin' I can squeeze please

And, it doesn't have to make sense to me or you or anyone
Yet somehow still it makes sense to me and you
Cause even when you're right you're wrong
You're right to know it's alright to be wrong tho
And, it doesn't have to make sense to me or you or anyone
Yet somehow still it makes sense to me and you
Cause even when you're right you're wrong
You're right to know it's alright to be wrong tho
Cause anyone can be the one to drop it
