

Freezing

Wild Rivers

I knew that this day would always come
You were gonna find a girl
You were gonna hold her tight
You were gonna show her love
And I knew that I was always gonna run
Take 'em up on all the plans
Never have an empty hand
I was gonna get it done

Now you're coming to me in the night
Thought that I was doing this right

Now I'm sleeping with, the TV on
Not leaving 'til, even the zombies go home
I kept, flying West, to avoid the cold
But I forgot the pain of thawing out
I wish that I was freezing now

Leaky faucet in my new apartment
Waking up to neighbours yelling
And I get a little jealous
'Cause they got someone to yell with
Put your love into my glove compartment
I just drove until I couldn't Changed my mind and swore I wouldn't
But I always do

I'm always one step behind you
The water's rising soon
Soon

Now I'm sleeping with, the TV on
Not leaving 'til, even the zombies go home
I kept, flying West, to avoid the cold
But I forgot the pain of thawing out
I wish that I was freezing now
Now

(Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
(Ooh, ooh)

I forgot the pain of thawing out
I wish that I was freezing now
