

You Can Side

Wild Rivers

Oh I think we're here again
Waiting on a wicked end
Over this you are my friend, whoa
So don't you give it half a shot
Don't make it all for naught
Just look at these things we got, whoa

You can side with the side that you wanna
You can side with the side that you wanna

Told me that you're burning out
I know you had your doubts
Now I'm stuck trying to go without, whoa
And you know that it's not gonna change
You can hold it and push it away
Don't you try and place a blame
'Cause it's all the same

You can side with the side that you wanna
You can side
You can side
You can side with the side that you wanna
You can side
You can side
You can leave anyway it's up to you
You can side
You can side
You can side with the side that you wanna
Oh I want that too

And you know that it's not gonna change
You can hold it or push it away
And you know that it's not gonna change
You can hold it, hold it

You can side with the side that you wanna
You can side
You can side
You can side with the side that you wanna
You can side
You can side

Until we can side with the side that you wanna
You can side
You know
You can side with the side that you wanna
Oh, I want that too
