

Be Yourself

Wilder Woods

Show me where your darkness lies
You don't ever have to hide
Oh, you can be yourself
Yeah, you can be yourself

I feel your hidden river ragin'
I'm not asking you to change it
Oh, you can be yourself
Yeah, you can be yourself

Say what you want
I don't care where it goes
If I'm gonna love you completely
We gotta let it all show

Who knows you better?
Who could love you any more?
You can trust me completely
I'm just asking for you to be yourself
Oh, you can be yourself

You're my hero, you're my villain
Oh, and I don't care who wins
Oh, you can be yourself
Yeah, you can be yourself

I'm in love with all your pages
I don't want to see it end
Oh, you can be yourself
Yeah, you can be yourself

Say what you want
I don't care where it goes
If I'm gonna love you completely
We gotta let it all show

Who knows you better?
Who could love you any more?
You can trust me completely
I'm just asking for you to be yourself
Oh, you can be yourself

The way I see it
We are all afraid to love
Be yourself
It's safe to let me love you
No part of you I wouldn't touch
You can be yourself

We fall down
We weaponize our words
Be yourself
No secret has the power
To diminish your worth

Say what you want
I don't care where it goes

If I'm gonna love you completely
We gotta let it all show

Who knows you better?
Who could love you any more?
You can trust me completely
I'm just asking for you to be yourself
