

What Are You Afraid Of (Work Tape)

Wilder Woods

Your fear is scattered like paper in the wind
And your tank is empty, it's hard to pretend
Everything is alright and death's not marching in Tell me what you're afraid of, I wanna help you with it

Sometimes it's weakness, oh but sometimes it's right
Everything is darkness, you should look for light
Tryna be the right kind of lover and friend
So won't you let me and Jesus carry your troubles again?

There's a common thread in heartache, it's always worse when it
's alone
So I wanna give you shelter, give you someplace you can go
When worry floods your brain, and you think of giving in
Tell me what you're afraid of, and I'll help you with it
Show me what you're afraid of, and I'll meet you in it
