

Head Right

Wilderado

I hide my hope inside my heart
Until I'm home again
I told you once but I was lying
What's the fuss? You seem alright
I'm getting to run every dip
I'm holding heat against my hip
But when you play with fire
You end up choking on desire

Which way am I going?

Gotta get my head right
Gotta beat the sunrise
I, I, gotta shake this feeling
Gotta make a killing
But it always takes me so
Far from home

I push through people on the street
There's some place I'm supposed to be
Why can't I calm my mind
Enough to see what I might find?
Each moment, every single thing
Is coming at me like a dream
That I'm supposed to free
From the corners of my sleep

Won't somebody help me?

Gotta get my head right
Gotta beat the sunrise
I, I, gotta shake this feeling
Gotta make a killing, oh man
Gotta feel my soul, Lord
Gotta catch my focus, I, I
Can't lose this current
I got no assurance

But my love is waiting for me back at home
The only way to lose is be alone
Am I all alone?

Gotta get my head right
Gotta beat the sunrise
I, I, gotta shake this feeling
Gotta make a killing, oh man
Gotta feel my soul, Lord
Gotta catch my focus, I, I
I got no assurance, oh man
