

In Between

Wilderado

Does anybody know where the pretty horses go?
I see deep inside their eyes, they're headed down to Mexico
That's where my baby's from and where she longs to be There's a song that sits and waits for her that she's always su ng to me

It's somewhere between here and now
Somewhere in between right here, right here and now

Palomino running where the desert meets the sun
There's a million ways to go from here, a million ways and one
Up to Oklahoma where my baby sits with me
How much longer will she stick around
I guess we wait and see

It's somewhere between here and now
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
