

Mr. Major

Wilderado

Mr. Major I suppose
That you and I are both
Tied up in hopeless luck
But this is it, and this is what
We've been speaking of
Right now is all around
But it don't feel right
No it never feels right

Deep down, deep deep down
I guess I always knew that I was better than you
Say that I am
Take a look around
You're the victim again
Maybe if you taught it
You wouldn't have to solve it

Mr. Major I suppose
You and I are both
Tied up in hopeless luck
But this is it, and this is what
We've been speaking of
Right now is all around
But it don't feel right
No it never feels right

Some days I behave
Like any other man who acts like he's not to blame
For what he says
For what he's looking at
For what he's taking away
I would if I caught it
But I never saw it

Mr. Major I suppose
That you and I are both
But this is it, and this is what
We've been speaking of
Right now is all around

Mr. Major I suppose that you and I are both tied up
Mr. Major I suppose that you and I are both tied up
Mr. Major I suppose that you and I are both tied up
Mr. Major I suppose that you and I are both tied up
