

Siren

Wilderado

I'm down from so far
The tops of the buildings are talking to ceilings
Walking takes a long time
The road only shows me that loving is lonely

Where do you go when I need you most?
These siren eyes are searching for a home
I must be blind, I must be close

Jesus, I'm alright
I've been hoping and sewing
With windows half open I wait
I'll wait
Yeah, I'll wait

Where do you go when I need you most?
These siren eyes are searching for a home
I must be blind, I must be close
These siren eyes are looking for a home
Where do you go?

I'm down from so far

Where do you go when I need you most?
These siren eyes are searching for a home
I must be blind, I must be close
These siren eyes are looking for a home
Where do you go?
Where do you go?
