

Slow down, slow down darling
Slow down so I can catch your pain
Take it with me, bring your chute down slowly
We'll be drowning in an ocean of other people's money

We met in the summer
In the end
In the end
In the end
In the end
We all have dreams
We all have dreams
We all have dreams
But it's rare that they come true
We all have dreams
We all have dreams
I opened up my eyes and there was you

Bury me in sheets for Armageddon
Carry me across the thunder road
Bury me in sheets for Armageddon
Carry me across the thunder road

One day you will stand upon a hill
And smile forever
Smile

Bury me in sheets for Armageddon
Carry me across the thunder road
Bury me in sheets for Armageddon
Carry me across the thunder road

We all have dreams
We all have dreams
We all have dreams
It's rare they come true
We all have dreams
We all have dreams
I opened up my eyes and there was you
