Wildlife

Remember me
When you are sitting on your tower
On the sun
Let it bleed
You're bleeding all my light
Until our last goodbye

I've been lying in the witch's den
I've been tapping into some
Unholy power
The only thing I'm remembering
I keep on remembering

That's just time that I'm not wasting anymore
You're a wild ocean letting go
Break my spine and leave me buried all alone
I'm crashing on your shore
You can break my heart
Break my spine oh oh

Cruelty is always hungry for companionship and free
I'm still bleeding, I wake up every night
Cause I'm dying in the dream

You are never alone my friend
Even in this unholy hour
Only thing I'm remembering
I keep on remembering

That's just time that I'm not wasting anymore
You're a wild ocean letting go
Break my spine and leave me buried all alone
I'm crashing on your shore

You can break my heart
Break my spine
I'll be with you every time
