Not Alone

Wildways

Every day with the same tears
Every night on the broken reefs
But not alone alone
It's all we want

The years go by (so what?)
With it my world is changing
Sorry I was just thinking out loud
I only feel the freedom outside this building
Why we hate it? We hate everything we have
We hate everything we see everything we hear
We don't know what we need

Back to the memories
When I was your's
When I was alive
And who should I be?

Don't let the world bring you down
Don't let the faith make your life
Don't let the world bring you down
Don't let the faith make your life

Every day with the same tears
Every night on the broken reefs
But not alone alone
It's all we want
Every day with the same fears
Every night on the broken reefs
But not alone alone
It's all we want

Don't let the world bring you down
Don't let the faith make your life
Just try to speak to yourself
Just try to forget my smile
Let it burn let in hell
You know this is your last spell
I'll let you whisper in my ear
I just wanna hear
We wanna hear it

Back to the memories
When I was your's
When I was alive
And who should I be?

Every day with the same tears
Every night on the broken reefs
But not alone alone
It's all we want
Every day with the same fears

But not alone alone
It's all we want

Not alone alone
