

It's been weeks since we've spoken
You left me bruised, left me broken, yeah
I ain't gonna think of nights on Kawai
This is goodbye, yeah
I'm all that she loves, all that she loves
Still, I believe all of her lies?
I'm all that she wants, all that she wants
But I'm not giving in tonight, no
I'm not giving in tonight, no
I'm not giving in tonight, no

Skeletons in the closet
Skeletons in the closet
She's got skeletons in the closet
Skeletons in the closet, whoa

It's been weeks since I've seen your face
Wasting away, have not slept in days
But you know I can't take the thought of ever saying goodbye
You got me spinning and spinning around
I'm all that she loves, all that she loves
Still, I believe all of her lies?
I'm all that she wants, all that she wants
But I'm not giving in tonight, no
It's been weeks since we've spoken
I'm not giving in tonight, no
You left me bruised, left me broken
I'm not giving in tonight

Skeletons in the closet
Skeletons in the closet
She's got skeletons in the closet
Skeletons in the closet, whoa

It's been weeks since we've spoken
I'm not giving in tonight
I'm not giving in

She's got skeletons in the closet
Skeletons in the closet
She's got skeletons in the closet
Skeletons in the closet, whoa
