Wildways

Yeah, how long will I stay here watching the skies?
How long will I be waiting for my answers?
Why? What? And I can't stop
Like a little child, I'm so scared of shots
So fuck this place, you know I can't trust
And every motherfucker wanna shut me up

How much time is enough for you?
We need to just look back
You ain't a killer, but you lose
Everything you have

You gonna try to find your soul
I know you'll find it deep inside
With every second, every moment
You understand you won't be able to fight
Say it over and over again
Say it over and over again to me

And why do I have to fight with them?
And why do I have to breathe with them?
So why do I have to share my air, my city?
I'd like to live my life without them
Let me see your face, let me see your role
But it doesn't make sense to see nothing at all
And now here we go, we're not alone
So come on, motherfuckers, show must go on

How much time is enough for you?
We need to just look back
You ain't a killer, but you lose
Everything you have

You gonna try to find your soul
I know you'll find it deep inside
With every second, every moment
You understand you won't be able to fight
Say it over and over again
Say it over and over again to me

Say it over and over again
Say it over and over again

You gonna try to find your soul
I know you'll find it deep inside
With every second, every moment
You understand you won't be able to fight
Say it over and over again
Say it over and over again

Say it over and over again
Say it over and over again
Say it over and over again
