

Almost Had Me Convinced

Wiley

Eskiboy
2nd Phaze
Brazen
Roll Deep
Yep

I've been watching how you flex, I know about you
I've been watching how you flex, I know about you
You think you're so sly, you almost had me convinced
Girl
I've been watching how you flex, I know about you
Eskiboy

I don't really want girl troubles in my head
I'll just find a girl we can bubble in my bed
Her bra and phone was see-through red
I'm a naughty boy, I do naughty things
I mean naughty girls that ain't scared to cheat
I ain't scared to cheat, it keeps life exciting
Until it gets to the point where it's on top, then I'm sorry for all I've done
Wish I never did all I done but I can't go back so I gotta say bye
Done with relationships, I wanna fly
Live a little life in the sky, I deserve it
You don't deserve me, you deserve somebody new who, ain't like me
Living in the fast lane like me 'cause, time don't work with me
I'm, chasing time everyday of the week
Try to be on time everyday of the week and I'm, always late so
After all that shit we went through, the M weren't far away (Away)
And I'm watching you fly away (Away)
I won't stop you girl just fly away (Away)
I might see you another day in the future
You might be with another breh but hey, what can I say
I didn't treat you like a line on a first date
I'm out of order, it's not okay but
I'm okay 'cause, them days are over
We used to hold each other (Yep, yep)
We didn't let go of each other
We were head over heels
Now it's all gone pear shape
It's all gone wrong
Eskiboy

I've been watching how you flex, I know about you
You think you're so sly, you almost had me convinced
Girl
It's a small world, times are always changing
I swear girl you almost had me convinced
I've been watching how you flex, I know about you
You think you're so sly, you almost had me convinced
Girl
It's a small world, times are always changing
I swear girl you almost had me convinced

Where's that buff ting when I need her
Right now when I am there for you, you're not there for me
That's not fair is it, this ain't working out
What am I to do, try and work this out

Don't you get tired of messing about
When you could be out of your house and lie down with me
You know what I'm talking about, I can't figure you out
So I give you a frown
I get around with girls, just like you, when you ain't around
And I can boujee now
[?] stupidest how that you were never figured out
I was sleeping around, shit I let it slip out again
Not a doubt I'm allowed back in your house
But that is okay, I will leave without you
Don't phone me about it, stress me about it
'Cause I don't need you around me girl
Girl

I've been watching how you flex, I know about you (Yes)
You think you're so sly, you almost had me convinced
Girl
It's a small world, times are always changing
I swear girl you almost had me convinced
I've been watching how you flex, I know about you
You think you're so sly, you almost had me convinced
Girl
It's a small world, times are always changing
I swear girl you almost had me convinced
