But now the love is gone I'm moving on she's not my
No more games and I'm picking myself up, I want them big wages
And I'll come back to relationships when I leave the game and I'm stable
I gotta put food on my table, no one else will put food on my table
Trying to keep her happy make me end up sad
I wanted us to be equal so, when I thought she was doing wrong I just went o ut and made got equal
By the end of that, our time was almost up
But we were holding on
I was holding onto the past, I was looking at broken glass
Let me go, I'll let you go, we'll be alright (Be alright)
You can be with that boy, and I'll just take my time and be humble (Humble)
When I see you with your man there'll be no trouble, I'll be humble
Believe me, I've had my fair share of [?], I'm cool
Here I am I'm opening up, opening doors for the youngers
I'm not always a bastard, you know that I'm good at heart
The last two years have tore me apart
I'm still, going, I'm still, trying
I'm thinking about you, trying to forget you
There's so much going on in my head
You was on your way since the day you went away with that A&R boy
I should have let you go back then, you would've been better off, life with him
It woulda made me wanna put a knife in him but I'm a master of sin so
I can't say nothing, I can't win, now I've lost

Yeah she was my, she was my (Baby, ooh, ooh)
That girl was my (Baby, ooh, ooh)
Yeah that buffting from there, she was my (Baby, ooh, ooh)
