

Eskiboy
Yo

I catch people following fashion while I'm tryna set the trend
I catch people going on drastic
Going on dark towards their friends
I catch people fake reppin' when they not from the ends
I check myself I know I'm not going on like them
I see people fronting like they hate me but they like me really
I catch girls on the road, acting stupid, acting silly
I'll catch any obstacles that you are tryna throw at me
And death ain't planning to roll on me, but they can't put a hold on me, no

Gotta be yourself
Don't follow nobody else
Gotta be myself
And get to where I wanna be
Gotta be yourself
Don't have to be what others do
If you're just be true to yourself as a person you'll be so complete

Boy, yo
You would like to be involved that's what you think from the start
But this music game is nothing but, stress from the start
You don't have to question me or wonder if I got the heart to stand right up in the fire
Eskiboy I play the part
Used to play out in the park
I found my way out of the dark
In England we have made our mark
I'm on my way up to the charts
I don't wanna hear no smart remarks 'cause
Life's worth more than the [?], apes [?]
Yeah

Gotta be yourself
Don't follow nobody else
Gotta be myself
And get to where I wanna be
Gotta be yourself
Don't have to be what others do
If you're just be true to yourself as a person you'll be so complete

Yo
I don't trust none of dem lies
It's funny funny business
Follows me around quietly
I fight fire with fire
Why are these people trying it with me
I'll turn your pluses into minuses
If you wanna be sly, you can lie and get hit
I don't reckon I'll miss
Picture me swinging a fist and hitting area you thick
I'm smarter than you think
I can tell when you're lying by the way that you blink
And you're winking away, like somethings in your eye
I'm quick to spot those little things

I've got, people that love me and I've got people that hate me
I'm not afraid to say it
Make note we are raining and make way for the latest
Top boys in the game, you will notice it later

Gotta be yourself
Don't follow nobody else
Gotta be myself
And get to where I wanna be
Gotta be yourself
Don't have to be what others do
If you're just be true to yourself as a person you'll be so complete
