Runnin' through my

Lose my mind

She want me fi lose my mind, but I can't lose my sauce
My drip is forever insured

She wan' fi tek my sizes
Yeah, this gyal full of surprises
Yeah, with the body she's the nicest
Everytime I check her, it's a crisis
I told her, "I ain't arguing with you babe"
I got manners
That's why I'm going down to Selfridges and Harrods
I'm steppin' in, I got that OT bop
We getting money, so we shop until we drop
That's why

She don't want me being level-headed
She don't want me out there being breaded
My drip is pretty heavy, she don't get it
I gotta keep it going, can't en' it
I go and find the money, then I spen' it
I don't really wanna argue with her, this is how we get it
Anyting I want, I gotta get it
I just step into the shop and then I set it

She want me fi lose my mind, but I can't lose my sauce
My drip is forever insured
Ooh nah nah, no
Ooh nah nah, no
Ooh nah nah, no
She want me fi lose my mind, but I can't lose my sauce
My drip is forever insured
Ooh nah nah, no

She thinks she got me with that big back off
I'm drippin' so much, I gotta turn the tap off
She can buss it down on me, start a clap off
When I hit it from behind, she wan' me start a slap off
In my life, there ain't a ceiling, took the roof rack off
Come and settle in your city, then I move back off
I'm one of one, big man, of course
I pull up in your city with the sauce, holla

She don't want me being level-headed
She don't want me out there being breaded
My drip is pretty heavy, she don't get it
I gotta keep it going, can't en' it
I go and find the money, then I spen' it
I don't really wanna argue with her, this is how we get it
Anyting I want, I gotta get it

She want me fi lose my mind, but I can't lose my sauce
