The way I do it, nobody can do it better
The way you do it, you come across as a bredda
I won't stop it, I'm gonna do it forever
Check my new coat, white suede, white leather, grey letters
Like line me up, 'cause I'm clever
What I'm gonna be wearing, you never
Walking in the West End, brand new BM
All windows down blazin' "Stormy Weather" (Yep)
I got lemons that makes your eyes redder
Can't buy a draw if you ain't got cheddar
So if you wanted to ask me, if I don't trust you
I'll tell you right quick, "not me, never"
Even if you thought you would never get caught
I'll still put holes in your sweater
I said, "you're not, he's not, nobody's better
I'll slew you even if you got a vendetta"

All In, Wiley, Black Rain and Mega (Come on)
Let's collaborate, let's make this cheddar (Yep, yep)
It's a old school link-up, never done better

Yo, yo, can anybody feel my pain
All those days with no whip, on the train
When my own uncle took crack-cocaine
And he smoked my laptop, he weren't on a lane
Raised with no dad, dad locked away
At the age of fourteen my mum moved away
No wonder I moved the yay, stuck in my ways
Black sheep of the family that went astray
An MC, I was meant to be, stomach empty
Hungry, I swear this was meant for me
Take a walk in my shoes, feel my pain
'Black Rain' howd'a think I came up with that name?
From 'X' amount of that stress and strain
Gangsta' lifestyles can mess with your brain
So when the BM might hear my name
Listen to my bars you can feel my pain

Yo, I'm not done with the rage
'Cause I come down and I flip shit to the next page
Try take me for a Dave
Then I will lose it and go straight back to my old ways
Swear on my grandad's grave
I [?] gun bust, get that long ting that sprays
You niggas better behave
A proper MC's like a tidal wave
And they say I try and be Dizzee Rascal
Nah man I'm tryn'a get paid, not leather or suede
Come tell a man, a get cut down your boat with a blade
It's hot when I'm 'ere but, rest of them niggas are in the shade
I got game like my name's arcade, and this is my trade
I ain't afraid of gun difference, get a rave
