Yeah
You know me, I'm confident with the flow
It's Eskiboy, yeah
It's Eskiboy, E3, hold 'em up
It's Eskiboy, okay, yeah, okay
It's Eskiboy, Eskiboy, you know me
Yo, Eski

I walk in like yeah it's a nice night
Friday night I felt like I was hollow inside on this night
I walked up the stairs (yep), then I turned left (yep)
Who's that my ex (yep), turned back (yep yep)
I don't wanna see her out here raving
Waiting to be taken by so many bre
I only came two up
Got a text saying that your sisters not well and she just threw up
I'm in a dance you know
I wanna shake a leg but I'm afraid my night just got blew up
Girls try channelling, negative energy
But I'm not having it, positive energy
It don't make no sense me belling you
It don't make no sense you belling me
All the things you saying, why you telling me
Let me go I'm tryna break free (free, free, free)

The vibes different tonight, too many faces
End of the month, everybody's been paid
Alcohol takes over your body quickly, lose your senses
Your lost in a daze
It's a hype, it's a craze
I call it the rat race
Where the people get lost in the rat race
Do you already know that, I'm not one of them boys in the past who's lost in the rat race
Don't mistake this face it's not a target
Don't diss me like that rudeboy 'cause you'll be the target
Cars get smashed up outside after the dance in the dark bit, where you parke d it
I'm Wiley my face is baked so I shouldn't do shit
But what should I do then
I can't take it
It's the scene I'm pissed, 'cause I helped make it
Now I can't take it
You know what, I'm letting the youts take it
I don't wanna be here no more
Now I know why Rascal couldn't take it
I'm like make or break it would I really give up
Raving, going out, being in public
Still being about, I know one thing for sure
If I weren't who I am nobody would pick me out
