Holiday romance
On the beach all day, hold hands
But when the night-time reaches up, busy
So I can't make no plans
She wanna feels like she gets attention
It's all cool but I forgot to mention
When I gotta work I gotta work, no hassle
Get a watch she wants cool, no battle (Whoo)
She wanna link up (Kid), I said "yeah babe"
I fly around a lot, I'm on the airwaves
You look good at the bottom of the staircase
Let's roll through the city, bare face
I got my eyes on you, I'm attracted Back seat of the range, relaxing
I feel good and, I don't wanna go back
It's all due to a holiday romance

It's all due to a holiday romance
It's all due to a holiday romance
Hah
It's all due to a holiday romance
Uh-uh-uh-uh-uh
It's all due to a-
Yo

I might look, she might find me looking
Sparks in her eyeballs, night of a booking
Feeling I got, I said I might wanna girlfriend
And I'm in a pond fishing, throw the book in How can I do this, without pissing anybody off?
Can't happen
So it's that then
E-Class represents strong black men
Let me tell them again, let me tell them again (Whoo)
I might kiss the lips of a princess
When I'm on a choong ting, search for the best
All rounder, I can work with her face, with her feet, with her hair, with her bumper and breast
Yes, I got one thing to tell ya
Check your bumper in a skin-tight dress
'Cause I wanna pull it up slightly
Yo, what's your number, your name, and address?

Yes, what's your number, your name, and address?
Haha
Jheezus
All on pull up my selector, cah yuh dun know everyting nice
