

House Of Fire

Wiley

Fuck it
It's Youngblood (Youngblood)
Eskiboy, Frisco

Don't be offended, by the way I landed
I'm outstanding, I dig deep if I'm stranded
Don't care what the baddest man did
I'm badder when I'm on zero, like before I landed
Right handed, VIP banded
Left hand, guess what Guess watches I'm wearing Plain black, the new leather skin with a question mark in the middle of the bezel
Don't be alarmed if you see me bust garms
That won't be on the shelf 'til next year march Spit a 16 bars, hotter than tar
I'm a star, with a near off heart
I've got beats and bars and I'm, gonna start smashing up cars
If you owe me a penny, better pay it up fast
Pussios try to bread they get parred
Didn't know I was street smart with the coldest heart

If I went into a house of fire would you follow me around for the day
If I had a fresh, Iceberg suit
Would you go and buy one on the very next day
If I had no name, no shoes, no bars, no dough, you won't roll for the day
If I didn't make Eskimo, Igloo, Snowman, Terrible I wouldn't be here today

No dally, no dilly, no dilly, no dally
I've got combos like [?] and [?]
Couldn't take me for a wassy
Has some big.45 man a walk with a brand new knuckle
That's what you get sparked with
I'm not cold blooded, I'm cold hearted
I'm the hardest, karate get me started
And watch man get blasted
Most of these guys ain't cold hearted
Stop chatting 'cause your talk is cheap like the market
About best in the scene, I'm the best when I squeeze
I leave the rest in the [?]
You ain't testing me B, 'cause I'm next in the street
And I flow angry like I'm vexed with the beat
So step to me please, I'll invest in the heat
And spray everyting from your head to your feet

If I went into a house of fire would you follow me around for the day
If I had a fresh, Iceberg suit
Would you go and buy one on the very next day
If I had no name, no shoes, no bars, no dough, you won't roll for the
If I didn't make Eskimo, Igloo, Snowman, Terrible I wouldn't be here

today
