

Eskiboy, yo
Roll Deep, all day, everyday
Boy Better Know

Tunnel Vision Volume 1

You can hate me but it don't matter I'm on point fans
So you won't ever see me cracking up on coke cans
People try to diss the kid and they've got no plans
You say my name so much I guess that I'm a name brand
And I just come from yard, I'm looking for some wasteland
Gonna build a house, when the record label pays man
It might be the last chance, I can't waste grands
End up broken, then you've gotta try and chase grands
You can slate me but you'll never know the real me
The only way is if you come from E3
Or if you roll around with Skepta, me and Cheeky
I didn't know that I would be this massive MC
One of the greatest, who battled with any MC
Every year you'll see him fighting should be MVP
Most valuable poet in the country not just E3
You say you would, but you wouldn't wanna be me

So, Wiley, I hear there's a new edition to the family tree and dat (Yeah)
Like, wha... what's going on, tell us more about that mate
Yeah like, man just had a daughter innit like
It's a deep thing still like
There's like, stages of my life where I never even thought I could even have kids, you get me?
So, that's like a good feeling to me innit like (Eskiboy)

Will you just understand that Wiley's only human
I had a choongers, it was bait that I would lose 'em
When I'm thinking back now, I only used 'em
I can't complain when all the younger MC's move 'em
I'm 27, I'll just draw your auntie Susan
We're at the brewery Brick Lane, they call it Truman
You might see me with the daughter of Chrissy Newland
We ain't been speaking but I'm sure that it's coolen
She knows I'm not a city boy, she watched me school 'em
Making money, dropped from the trees, like it's falling
I'm balling
I was on a street walk, shotting from morning
Stood 6ft tall, heard the streets calling
Eskibeat, Eskiboy, that is who is ruling
Copycat, copycat, who'd you think you're fooling
Brought a couple stars out, bring a couple more in Got it locked tight, like your girls wooden flooring

So, Wiley, you've been in this game for a long time now (Yeah)
I mean, ho... how old are you exactly?

27

A... and what's your plans for the future?
Really I just wanna set up a few record labels
I wanna concentrate on Roll Deep, Boy Better Know, the Wiley project
Like, I wanna, I gotta project with Big Dada

So I'm just tryna put all the work in
