

Let Me Go

Wiley

Yes

Look, I don't run away
You used to open your eyes
It's like you're frozen inside, you're scared of a flame
But I'm burning inside
And my heads spinning around from your games
But I don't wanna play
Why don't you treat me the same?
But it's too late, because I noticed a change
And that's why I feel this way
So I will leave you safe

If you can love me, let me know
I don't wanna wait for you no more
You say you that love me, but you don't
Why don't you let me go?

If I let go then a magnet draws me back (Back)
She says "get out, don't come back" (Back)
If I leave this time, I won't come back (Gone)
I'm just being rough for the day
Night time comes and I'm gonna want her back
And it might not end like a constant wrap
So I take two steps back, lying to my girl - I ain't gotta do that How can I find?
Let her know the plan was get more money and travel the whole land
Clear blue water, flexing
Take a step through in the golden sand
We can be holding hands and [?] all the times I was out with the gang
Talking to girls weren't half of the plan
Plus you got a half of me, I'm your man

If you can love me, let me know
I don't wanna wait for you no more
You say you that love me, but you don't
Why don't you let me go?

Check, look
She rose her eyes everytime I'm smiling
Can't get a hold of my line when I'm writing
Frustrated 'cause I'm bad with the timing
Ain't seen me for days but I'm trying
Explanation, explanation
Everything I say is all lie
Can't get a word in, I say I'm earning
So sometimes I'm not home at night
So everyting bless, relieve the stress
When she don't like me, I like her less
And she likes the best, and I can't provide for her
She kicks me out, the next
'Cause she's from Venus, and I'm from Mars
So more time we link and click with the stars
But right now she ain't feeling my pars
She like, "what di rass"

If you can love me, let me know
I don't wanna wait for you no more

You say you that love me, but you don't
Why don't you let me go?
If you can love me, let me know
I don't wanna wait for you no more
You say you that love me, but you don't
Why don't you let me go?
