

Move Goal Posts

Wiley

25 MCs backstage chilling
They goal posts when they see man winning
If you got a friend who's cold on a mic
You could shut down dances, rude boy bring him
Can't be a new kid in this industry
When I look back I've already been them
I've already seen it
I already did it
Let them do it and they will get with it

Can't be a hater when man got these skills with a pen
Over and over and over again
Man spray bars that's like a man zen
If I start a tent I'll be done by 10
I'll be home by 11 and do the same ting
Big up the groups I was in Man gained knowledge from the crews I was in
I'm like a reebok classic
Honestly I'm doing magic for the fans in the traffic
Too erratic
It's like I've been locked in attic and let out to rage like a savage
I'm too hard to manage
Too many layers like a cabbage
And I bring too much baggage
And I wouldn't make the same day delivery sharp like an Amazon package
Online presents zero
Now we still offline presents, offline methods
Offside by call but the Ref was a lie
But the Ref's one of them and he ain't one of mine
If he crossed my path in a way I don't like
I ain't picking up a mic
If all the rules and the laws that would up f without brains
Don't fall in none of them again that

Who's in charge of you don't tell ya'll before your dance abroad
Credit on your card
Your one swine flu your answers
Oh you wanna air some of these bars
When I zone in and I've got my new vibes rolling
Everything turn up and the money starts rolling
Six them back with a flat kick
I can see a head like a psychic

Why go with Big Michael
He don't wanna defend the title
Chips on a wicker man ting
He's making Stormzy his reval
None of this is my business
But I told the grand commands in this
Man had 24 hours but you lot can do what you want
I just witnessed
Oh lord draw for the guitar and I ain't going to play no chords
You might rule a board
Man split when the lines and raw
Your boss do style but we bust a few more
When the war starts Ima stand up
Done it's the real platform that I'm standing on

No MC has ever stood this long
I'm the real living proof that it could be done
