

Over The Edge

Wiley

I don't want to be trapped in here
I want to break free, yeah
I don't want to sit back in fear
I just want to be me
So much I want to see, I don't want to
I don't want to love you no more
I think I'm going solo
Every time I open that door
I feel it's going over the edge

Put myself in a box
Make my choices limited
So much pressure
The pressure's the thing that's really killing it
So much pain between us over years is what we're living with
The worst argument makes a moment definitive
All you want is love and you tell me that I ain't giving it
All I want is other girls and that's why I ain't giving it
It's like I've always got my eyes on something
If she's on it then I'm pressing that decider button
Fly away, fly away, don't let anything stop you
If you ever need a thing you know I got you
Respect between us going to last a lifetime
We were right for each other but babe it weren't the right time
I can't tell you the last time I was happy in this ting
You staying here is making me feel crappy in this ting
Set me free Lord
It's like a see-saw
The kids have seen enough arguing bait
They ain't gotta see more

I don't want to be trapped in here
I want to break free, yeah
I don't want to sit back in fear
I just want to be me
So much I want to see, I don't want to
I don't want to love you no more
I think I'm going solo
Every time I open that door
I feel it's going over the edge

Maybe we're supposed to be friends
Or close to the end
Or over the edge
I'm praying na na
Feeling so alone in this bed
I'm holding my dread
You're supposed to be here
I'm praying na na na
Pretending you ain't lonely again
I know you're with them
I know you're with them
I think you're gone too far
I think you're gone too far
I'm praying na na na
Baby mind what you're doing
Or just hold me in mind when you're moving

There's always a you and I in the ruin
That's a word that always springs to mind when I think of us
From the jump you called me daddy 'cause I brought you up
Learnt the most lessons even though I taught you everything
Plus that I bought you everything
You never had a heel on your shoe before me
Probably never had starters with your meal before me
Kept it real with corned beef
But now you're all Gilgameshed out
Is that just because I'm rich now
I don't know
It's got me feeling let down
Did I build you up, break you, and then break out
You're my crown jewels, you're supposed to be my safe house
I took the fake and the faith out
Now why you trying to break free?
Are you just trying to break free? Oh na na na

I don't want to be trapped in here
I want to break free, yeah
I don't want to sit back in fear
I just want to be me
So much I want to see, I don't want to
I don't want to love you no more
I think I'm going solo
Every time I open that door
I feel it's going over the edge
