Yo

Okay (Okay) !

Yo!

It's Roll Deep, Roll Deep!

Yo (Yo)

Yeah (Yeah)

(What was it, what was it, what was it, what was that?)

What was that for?

Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?

Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?

I just want you to accept me for me, 'cause I am who I am sorry

What was that for?

Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?

Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?

I just want you to accept me for me, cause I am who I am sorry

I'm trying to understand your way, and I'm getting there
I'm speechless sometimes cause I don't know what to say
It's like another reason to make you go away
It's like that thing comes into my body then I play
Our arguments are like lessons to be learned
It's like we don't learn, cause we keep on arguing about the same thing
Before we drift apart, we better get it running smooth
Cause ever since I remember my life weren't smooth
But I changed it, I didn't settle for the rough life
Put the rough with the smooth, now I travel through life
Travel through the mic, travel through real street life
Plus I'm trying to compromise with you and your life
So my plates full up, I'm trying to do it all at once
And my heads full up, I can't clear it all at once
Please understand I wouldn't wanna hurt your feelings once
Cause for once I wanna settle down, but something's stopping us

What was that for?

Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?

Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?

I just want you to accept me for me, 'cause I am who I am sorry

What was that for?

Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?

Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?

I just want you to accept me for me, cause I am who I am sorry

I wish I could explain it to you, when I'm in your face
But I find myself silent, when I'm face to face
And I think about you when I'm going from place to place
If I leave you in the house, I can picture your face
I can just imagine that unhappy look on your face
Can you imagine how I feel when I see your face?
I don't wanna see you sad; I wanna see your happy face
But it's my fault that you feel the way you feel in case
You're not sure; I can assure you that it's me
It's me who says I'm coming home and I don't do it
It's me who says that I have done it but I haven't done it
It's me who makes you feel like I don't care for you
It's me; it's me, who makes us doubting this relationship
I doubt you really wanna put up with the dishonesty

You don't wanna put up with me
Gradually you're gonna get pissed, you're gonna leave
While I'm looking for a way to keep you, don't leave
Please wait!

What was that for?
Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?
Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?
I just want you to accept me for me, 'cause I am who I am sorry
What was that for?
Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?
Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?
I just want you to accept me for me, cause I am who I am sorry
What was that for?
Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?
Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?
I just want you to accept me for me, 'cause I am who I am sorry
What was that for?
Why you taking all your problems out on me? Why?
Why you taking all your anger out on me? Why?
I just want you to accept me for me, cause I am who I am sorry
