This is Eskiboy
Boy Better Know, Roll Deep
Tunnel Vision Volume 2
I'm back, I'm back its not long
Listen

Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim
Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim

Now I gotta pump up, tone up
I hold my own up
Enemies search, surprise I ain't shown up
Next time you see me blud I'll say hold up
If you're looking for me, say who's gonna hold me up
Raise my tone up, it was a kitchen knife in my jumper but now it's been sown up
I just had a kid now I'm all grown up
Don't try box the kid you'll get shown up
Pump up, tone up, buildings get blown up
Girls try and lie then, I'll bring the spirits in Eyes turn red then, they start to own up
Then the girl starts to raise her tone up
I was like you I didn't respect my grown ups
I smoke weed but I don't smoke roll ups
I feel weak gotta pump up, tone up
I'm not a kid no more I'm a grown up

Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim
Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim

You don't know what cocaine is
Hyping up the whole game is
I'm real lemme show you what pain is Scared of goons the whole train is
Do you really wanna know what fame is Scared of Taliban the whole plane is You're lame and me I do know what lame is
The kid brought the sound straight to the surface
So let's name this
In the game number one I can't see fifth, it's true
Highly flammable, propane is
You don't know how old the game is
You wanna know what nobody's taking my chain is
I'm like Buxton fizz, what'd you come through movies

Study it, I know what Snake and Crane is Tell Bow and everybody doing it the same is Imagine this rave, Wiley, Kano and Dizz

Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim
Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim

Push weights and, push weights
Now my whole frame is wedge like my name is Safe from being flooded, no drain is
And in my jungle, we don't know what tame is
And the drug game is like my estate is
Where the crack 'caine is, hotels, men and ladies
Mothers and dads they produce the crack babies
Do it so much, go to church and try realise what saved is Come on, you know what being played is Lemme just say this
When you're ready for the kid just holler
Your head that's where your brain is
So don't be brainless, know what the game is
My mindframe's not like my timescale is wrong
My mindframe is right
Past and the future can't control this
And Wiley's raw talent the country can't control this

Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim
Pump up tone up, weights in the gym
Glass full of Alisade right to the brim
Roll Deep so deep they can't swim
Doing it for Keisha, doing it for Kim
