But swiftly moving on I'm like your knight in shining armour Baby, I can protect you
You can call me in the night, you can call me in the day
I'll be over to collect you
'Cause obvious who you are in my life, will make it harder to forget you ('Cause you're the one)
That's why I'm not a bastard, even if I have been, I respect you

And if I draw around the stencil, I see your body form, looking just how it' s meant to (Oh yeah) Think about the places that we've been to, they were magical. How could othe r girls not resent you?
You got it all, and you don't even go and flash wid it, that's why I love th e vibe that you sent through (Sent through) You got other guys tryna holler at you lady but they can't rub me out like a pencil
'Cause I'm a pen I put the ink onto the page, tattoo's on my arms, neck, men
