

Every Time It Rains

Will Downing

Verse 1

Your gone. . . and it's hard to take that you're not laying here with me

On a day like this its more of a reality, Just an empty room and memories of what used to be and its breaking my heart

(I still wonder when this pain) will finally fade away When your face is only a passing memory

Chorus

(I think of you and me and how it used to be it stays heavy on my mind)

Every time it rains (I wonder where you are could you be near or far every day and night)

Every time it rains

Affected by it all tears drop like water falls the passion with the pain) Every time it rains it pours upon me and I pray for sunny days

Verse 2

So you've moved on

And I hear you're in the arms of another man

But nobody's gonna to love you baby like I can

Do the things and touch the places that would drive you mad. Ohhh and its breaking my heart

(I still wonder when this pain) will finally fade away

When your face is only a memory (yeah)

Now you're gone way and I'm lonely lonely baby (I'm so lonely)

Come on and stop the rain

Chorus (2x adlib)

Whoa aho, hey yeh every time it rains, lookin' back

Oh every time that it rains it pours upon me and want you baby to come on home to me

Every time it rains

Where are you baby, where are you my love, oh every time that it rains it pours upon me

And I want you baby, love you woman yeh ey yeh oh yeh every time that it rains ah oohh

Thinkin back on it, thinkin back on it, baby everytime that it rains on me baby oh, oh oww ooh
