

Delusion

Will Sparks

I've been on my own, walking through a bed of roses
Stepping through with all my focus, or looking for a sign today
To tell me all the reasons that I lie awake

But I still feel her life
I know I was chosen when I lost my mind, yeah
I can see it in your eyes
I know you can see it when I open mine

I can hear you, though I don't know why
I can hear you, from inside my mind, yeah

I can hear you...

I've been all alone, hoping for a diagnosis
Knowing but I'm all but broken, oh
Maybe it'll find a way
I'll be scared of catches of my mind today

But I still feel her life
I know I was chosen when I lost my mind, yeah
I can see it in your eyes
I know you can see it when I open mine

I can hear you, though I don't know why
I can hear you, from inside my mind
