

Till There's Nothing Left

Will Young

I wanna steal every breath of fire
From every star in the Southern sky
I wanna lay down in the dark
And take a match right to your heart

I wanna hide with you in the rain
In the eye of a hurricane
I wanna call it for what it is
And give you everything I've got to give

Me and you in the backseat
Drivin' me crazy
Killin' me, baby
With the windows up
Spendin' all of my love
Prayin' God don't save me

Till there's nothing

Keep me locked up in your eyes
Before the sun pushes out the night
Before we're whispers in the air
Come on and take me without a care

I wanna know what it feels like
To disappear into you
And never have to say goodbye
I wanna call love what it is

Me and you in the backseat
Drivin' me crazy
Killin' me, baby
With the windows up
Spendin' all of my love
Prayin' God don't save me

Don't wanna go yet, I don't wanna go yet
Sunrise feelin' like a final sunset
Ooh baby, drivin' me crazy
Windows up, prayin' God don't save me
Don't wanna go yet, I don't wanna go yet
Sunrise feelin' like a final sunset

Me and you in the backseat
With the windows up

(Sunrise feelin' like a final sunset
Yeah, yeah
No, no
All of my love
(Sunrise feelin' like a final sunset
