

A Smile Can't Hide (A Broken Heart)

William Bell

I see you smiling, but, girl, I know
When you walked away, it hurt you so
You keep telling me everything's alright
But I know, a smile can't hide a broken heart

If you need loving, just let me know
You know I'm waiting, just tell me so
Then you won't have to pretend no more
Because a smile can't hide a broken heart

You can't help it, baby, it's gonna show
You can keep on smiling, but I'll know

Just let me love you and your heart I'll steal
Then when you smile, it'll be for real
You won't have to pretend no more
Because a smile can't hide a broken heart

No, no, no...
A smile can't hide a broken heart
A smile can't hide a broken heart
A broken heart
A broken heart

You can't hide it
Don't you know you can't hide it...
