

Crying All By Myself

William Bell

Maybe I'm right
I don't know
Maybe I'm wrong
I've got a feeling
What's the matter baby
You're not coming home

And you're leaving me
Crying all by myself

I know you're not angry
There's nothing to fight
But I won't see you
After tonight

Girl you're leaving me
Crying all by myself

I really done no wrong
I'm gonna miss you after you go girl
Yes I will, yes I will, yes I will

You gave me love
I loved in return

But still you're leaving me
Crying all by myself
