

Lie

William Black

Wish I knew why it's different now
Why it feels like we're turning to strangers
Nothing happened so why are we fading out
And I know that you feel it too
Think we're both scared of breaking the silence
So instead we keep trying to hide the truth

Oh baby we keep lying every night
While we're lying right next to each other
And we know it isn't right
But we don't wanna admit that it's over
Cuz ooh, we know it's love to lose
Running from the truth by
Lying every night
While we're lying right next to each other

Lie lie lie, lie to each other
While we lie lie lie next to one another
Lie lie lie, lie to each other tonight
I don't know why we
Lie lie lie, lie to each other
While we lie lie lie next to one another
Lie lie lie, lie to each other tonight
I don't know why we

I don't know why we
Lie lie lie, lie to each other
While we lie lie lie next to one another
Lie lie lie, lie to each other tonight
I don't know why we

And I wish there was an excuse
Or a reason our feelings are changing
What's to blame? Baby, it wasn't me or you
You're so distant holding me close
It's like we're miles apart in the same room
You got no reason to stay, does that mean I should go, no no

Oh baby we keep lying every night
While we're lying right next to each other
And we know it isn't right
But we don't wanna admit that it's over
Cuz ooh, we know it's love to lose
Running from the truth by
Lying every night
While we're lying right next to each other

Lie lie lie, lie to each other
While we lie lie lie next to one another
Lie lie lie, lie to each other tonight
I don't know why we
Lie lie lie, lie to each other
While we lie lie lie next to one another
Lie lie lie, lie to each other tonight
I don't know why we

I don't know why we

Lie lie lie, lie to each other
While we lie lie lie next to one another
Lie lie lie, lie to each other tonight
I don't know why we
