

Only One I Need

William Black

I couldn't live without you
But everyday I wake up still alive
Always thinking 'bout you
'Til I realized you never cross my mind

And I won't get back all the days
But my heart can rearrange
I could never hate you
You help me find myself and I

Who will keep me together
If I can't hold on myself?
I'll find someone who loves me better
Guess I never needed your help
'Cause it's too late tonight
For my tears to have the last line
I'm finally seein' clearer
'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight

'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight
'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight

I guess I always wanted
Somebody to want me all the time
But the reality I'm facing
Is the only love I really need is mine

And I won't get back all the days
But my heart can rearrange
I could never hate you
You help me find myself and I

Who will keep me together
If I can't hold on myself?
I'll find someone who loves me better
Guess I never needed your help
'Cause it's too late tonight
For my tears to have the last line
I'm finally seein' clearer
'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight

Ooh, woah, oh, woah, oh
'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight
Ooh, woah, oh, woah, oh
'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight

The only one I need tonight
Tonight
'Cause I'm the only one I need tonight
