Save Me

William Black

I keep staring at that picture of us, one that faded
All the memories, did you throw 'em away, are you jaded?
Cause I wouldn't blame you if you are, if you are
No I wouldn't blame you if you are, if you are

Who's gonna save me now, oh, when I fall apart?
Who's gonna call my name, oh, when my mind is dark?
Who's gonna take your place, now that I let you down?
 (Who's gonna save me now?)
Who's gonna save me now, oh, when I fall apart?
Who's gonna call my name, oh, when my mind is dark?
Who's gonna take your place, now that I let you down?
Who's gonna save me now?

Who's gonna save me now?

When you held me, yeah you kept all my pieces together
So without you, I'm a mess, seems like you're doing better
Cause I wouldn't blame you if you are, if you are
No I wouldn't blame you if you are, if you are

Who's gonna save me now, oh, when I fall apart?
Who's gonna call my name, oh, when my mind is dark?
Who's gonna take your place, now that I let you down?
 (Who's gonna save me now?)
Who's gonna save me now, oh, when I fall apart?
Who's gonna call my name, oh, when my mind is dark?
Who's gonna take your place, now that I let you down?
Who's gonna save me now? (Who's gonna save me?)

Who's gonna save me now?
Who's gonna save me now, oh, when I fall apart?
Who's gonna call my name, oh, when my mind is dark?
Who's gonna save me now?
Who's gonna save me now?

Who's gonna save me now?
