

Gun to Your Head

William Clark Green

Here comes a train wreck, the tracks are tore up
I pull the switch, but the switch wouldn't give up
Off in the distance I hear it rollin
I close my eyes, but I leave one eye open
It ain't like someone put a gun to your head
And made you lay down next to me in my bed

Would it kill you to give a little more than you take?
Give me the reason if you go or if you stay
Sink or swim, life or death
Tell me, what would you do right now with a gun to your head?

Did I give up? Did you surrender?
Did I say I love you? Now I don't remember
Was it me or did you do it to yourself?
Was it something I said? Was it someone else?

Would it kill you to give a little more than you take?
Give me the reason if you go or if you stay
Sink or swim, life or death
Tell me, what would you do right now with a gun to your head?

Would it kill you to give a little more than you take?
Give me the reason if you go or if you stay
Sink or swim, life or death

Would it kill you to give a little more than you take?
Give me the reason if you go or if you stay
Sink or swim, life or death
Tell me what would you do right now
What the hell would you do with a gun to your head?
