

Next Big Thing

William Clark Green

Lookin back now its been about 7 years.
Since i heard the world callin and I disappeared.
Sold a few records played a few shows.
Sometimes man I just don't know why they keep telling me.
You're the next big thing.
What's that mean.
Oh it's hard to pay your dues when there ain't no money in the bank.
It's a shame.
I got to make it to the show but there ain't no gas in the tank
It's insane.
What you do for a broken heart and some busted string.
Oh everybody saying I'm the next big thing.
Pretty little thing won't talk to me back stage.
Little does she know I don't make minimum wage.
Smoke and mints truth and lies.
Tell the truth I don't mind you whispering to me.
Because you're the next big thing.
What's that mean.
Oh it's hard to pay your dues when there ain't no money in the bank.
It's a shame.
I got to make it to the show but there ain't no gas in the tank
It's insane.
What you do for a broken heart and some busted string.
Oh everybody saying I'm the next big thing.
Because you're the next big thing.
What's that mean.
Oh it's hard to pay your dues when there ain't no money in the bank.
It's a shame.
I got to make it to the show but there ain't no gas in the tank
It's insane.
What you do for a broken heart and some busted string.
Oh everybody saying I'm the next big thing.
The next big thing.
Oh everybody saying I'm the next big thing
