

Disconnecting

William Control

I was a lonely Roman soldier
Lying on the fields of Mars
Waiting for your kiss
You were the sun and stars of Venus
The most magnificent eyes of pale blue I will ever miss
Then you turned away
The sky went black and grey
And your betrayal has killed me, has killed me

Are you disconnecting?
Are you disconnecting inside?
Are you disconnecting?
Are you disconnecting inside?

I was a lonely Roman soldier
Fighting in the fields of Mars
Waiting for your love
Then you turned away
Sky went black and grey
And your betrayal has killed me, has killed me

Are you disconnecting?
Are you disconnecting inside?
Are you disconnecting?
Are you disconnecting inside?
Are you disconnecting inside?
