

Romance & Devotion

William Control

I ran through fields of lace with fearless eyes and falling down
She knows I am a sinner
She paid with flesh and blood the years of abuse have turned to love
And now I've finally found her

I've taken love in a new direction
She knows I am a sinner
I've taken love and internalized all the pain around her

Love, all I feel is your love
I know it can't be normal
Love, all I feel is your love
And here comes the panic

I've hold you from the deepest hell on earth and meaningless
And know I am a sinner
I've taken love in a new direction
Well I can break your soul
I've taken love and inemplyfy
Where she knows I'm a sinner

Love, all I feel is your love
Romance and devotion
Love, all I feel is your love
I know it can't be normal

Love, all I feel is your love
Romance and devotion
Love, all I feel is your love
Here comes the panic

Love, all I feel is your love
Romance and devotion
Love, all I feel is your love
I know it can't be normal
Love, all I feel is your love
Romance and devotion
Love, all I feel is your love

Sing like you mean it
Love like you mean it
Tell me I'm a sinner
I found a brand new way to love you
