Catch You If You Fall

William Fitzsimmons

```
I see a dragon
Right before us
Stand behind me
There's no telling what could happen if we

We try to fight it
In your condition
And I can't lose you
Well, this year has been so hard already

I will catch you if you fall
I will catch you if you fall

I see a dragon
I see a dragon
And I still feel you
In the backyard
I see your handprints
In the rows and rows of flowers that we

Laid together
While the moon rose
And they still come up
All these years after you left me on my own

I will catch you if you fall
I will catch you if you fall

I see a dragon
I see a dragon
I see a dragon
```
