Another Yes

William Murphy

A few years ago we sang a song
My grandaddy came up and sang it
It was a one-word song
How many can testify
Sometimes all God is waiting on is one word

Tonight we came to declare there's another yes in my soul
Somebody throw your hands up and just say yes Lord
I want you to say it until you feel Him responding (Yes, yes)
Yes
Yes
Yes
Say it until you own it
Say it until it becomes your yes
That's all He's waiting on is a yes

Bishop Johnson, God said to me every miracle begins with a yes
Your miracle is in this house tonight but God requires

Dr. Bryant, we're not in the last dispensation
We're in a new dispensation
This new dispensation requires another yes

Wave your hands one more time
Just say Yes Lord
Yes Lord
I need you to say it until you own it
Say it until you feel God responding
