It's never too late to start over again (Repeat)

Dream (Repeat)

It's never too late to do what you should've done
The curses are gone you are the chosen one (Repeat)

Dream (Repeat)

It's never too late to chase after your dream
What God has prepared your eyes have never seen (Repeat)

Today is the day that God's gonna change your name
And after today you'll never be the same
