

Know he, he playing witchya
Know your heart's so tired of the bullshit
I'll face what he don't ruin
I'll find what he keeps losing
You know I been waiting for the time
Might sweep you off your feet
I'll lay you on my sheets
Fit for a queen

Girl, you gon' need me in the morning
Like I need you now
(Hold on 'cause I need you
I want just to see you, please you)
I got you, I'll give you what you needed
I know what you like (Sunsets in the evening
Six for the weekend)

You don't need no other body, body
You don't need no other body
Only you can hold my body
Only you can hold my body, ooh yeah
You don't need no other body

Girl, you need somebody like me
I can give you everything that you been missing
Out on lately
Giving you love in the back seat
We should do the freaky things
There's not gon' be a one night stand
'Cause I'ma need more and more and more
My sexy mi amor

Ooh, ooh yeah
Breakfast and head in the morning time
Wake up in bed and I'm by your side
And it's like that
Get it in girl and you'll be right back
And it's like that, 'cause

You don't need no other body
You don't need no other body
Only you can hold my body
Only you can hold my body
(In the morning, in the evening)
You don't need no other body

I don't want nobody
If it ain't your body
Now my bae I can't be without you
(Without you)
I don't want nobody
If it ain't your body
Swear the sex with you
Bless your ass and set the mood
