

I can't be loving you, it's cold what you doing to me?
I can't get no sleep when you hold and night and need
Give you all the griefs, some are realist, hard to true
Girl, I wish I ain't love you like all the others

Why you always try to act so cool in front of your friends?
Girl, I know that ain't you now why don't you tell them I pay for every damn thing in your wardrobe
Like you day job really afford to pay for that Range Rover
That shit is capping, you know it
Who really be bringing them dollars in for you to blow it?
Who really be buying all of them clothes that she ain't folded?
I'm sick of you sleeping on what I'm doing acting woke Where they do that at?
You turning green 'cause your ex files
Your jealousy is the reason why
We cannot be, girl you got too much missing
You want to talk about energy
But ain't pay the bills you gotta leave
That's just reality and I signed your check last night
You should check your life

I can't be loving
Baby, I can't be loving you no more
I can't get no sleep when your out here
Baby, I can't keep you around me?
Give you all of me
Baby, I can't be loving you no more
I ain't got no wish like before
Girl, I just can't love you no more

I done been through hell and back
Remained a real one was with you but there's no reward for that I done made a thousand racks
To spend a lot of money on you but that just wasn't enough
You wanted love, you wanted trust, pay your bills, yeah
A broken heart, a broken home
And that's a fraction of the way that I feel
You never loved me from the start
You told me down I picked up the part
And I put myself back together just to love again, trust again
You want to talk things over again
But it's way too late, you know it's the end?
I'm gonna get to walking it out
Because I figured that you figured it out

I can't be loving
Baby, I can't be loving you no more
I can't get no sleep when your out here
Baby, I can't keep you around me?
Give you all of me
Baby, I can't be loving you no more
I ain't got no wish like before
Girl, I just can't love you no more
