

From Time

William Singe

What's up? It's been a minute since we kicked it you've been caught up
With them hitter's I don't get it, you're a star love
You shouldn't have to deal with that I'll never make you feel like that

I love me, I love me enough for the both of us
That's why you trust me, I know you been through more than most of us, my baby
So what are you, what are you, what are you so afraid of?
Darling you, you give but you cannot take love

I know I've been gone for a minute
But even when I'm home, you feel distance
You say my love gone missing, but you can't seem to find where I hid it
Too many lonely nights, text messages and no replies
And I don't hear you cry, too caught up in them fashion lights

Tell me where I'm gone wrong, tell me where I'm gone right
If I am at all, 'cause I've been living for the nights that I can't recall Submersed in them bright lights while I build rapport
So neglectful, regret I ever met you, not to be disrespectful, but simply cause I respect you
But you don't even know what you want form love anymore
So who your settling for? Who better for you, than the boy hah?

I love me, I love me enough for the both of us
That's why you trust me, I know you been through more than most of us
So what are you, what are you, what are you so afraid of?
Darling you, you give but you cannot take love
