Just Enough

William Singe

Back and forth
You say you love me but I'm not sure
That makes you happy girl

I don't mind trying again
Just tell me that it's worth my time
I find it hard to let you in
But tell me it'll be alright

I'd rather feel on you than feel on someone new
Can't put the blame on you if you don't blame me too

It be a nightmare
If you're not around me
I don't want to live a fantasy
If it ain't you right here
It be a nightmare
'Cause if it's not you there's no one
I can love
You're perfectly just enough

I'm willing to wait for you
But I can't waste my time no
When you gon' break your silence?
Do I gotta break inside first?

I don't mind what it's gonna take
Just tell me and I'll walk the line
'Cause I try and try
'Cause right now I'm so empty inside

Feel on you than feel on someone new
Can't put the blame on you if you don't blame me too

It be a nightmare
If you're not around me
I don't want to live a fantasy
If it ain't you right here
It be a nightmare
'Cause if it's not you there's no one
I can love
You're perfectly just enough
