

The Cure

William Singe

She don't touch like she used to no more
She said love is for fools
Promises always left at the door
Now she ain't got nothing to lose
But I bet you I can fix it
Miss five foot five with the pretty brown eyes in my vision
Baby just listen, I know it's been me that you're missing
Can I get permission
To get you in your feelings
Know your ex man don't know what he dealing with no
That's the healing
I got time for it all girl we ain't gotta rush

Know we had a couple drinks
Probably why we're getting deep
You tell me what you thinking
I tell you I agree
Maybe we just been doing it wrong
Maybe we just gotta help each other like
Get it right, get it right
Give you life for the night

Sip uh
I feel the cure when you touch me
Walls feel like medicine when I get lucky (cause I got the healing)
Lifted, I'll get to healing your body
There ain't no rush, anything you want
Got a lot of holes in your list like oh yeah
Can you fix this like oh yeah
Got the remedy like oh yeah
Sit back and let me see like oh yeah
Watch how we ride

Trust me, I know how you're living
I know it's a lot on your heart
You ain't even gotta show me your scars
Baby just show me where I need to start
Forget it all when we lay down
Kiss on your neck girl show you how
I got the love that you ain't found
2 AM and you screaming out
Everything you're holding I want it
Scratch it in my body
Show me what you're hiding

Maybe we just been doing it wrong
I know we just gotta help each other like
Get it right get it right
Give you light, give you life

Sip uh
I feel the cure when you touch me
Walls feel like medicine when I get lucky (cause I got the healing)
Lifted, I'll get to healing your body
There ain't no rush, anything you want
Got a lot of holes in your list like oh yeah
Can you fix this like oh yeah

Got the remedy like oh yeah
Sit back and let me see like oh yeah
Watch how we ride

Never slipping, never falling
Shot calling
Never tripping, never falling
Boss hogging
