

Damned

Willow Avalon

Holding the door hoping you'll walk out
Honesty's a virtue, one you haven't figured out
I've had the reservations swimming around in doubt
I've got no motivation to figure this shit out

Who who who
Who who who

But I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't
Circling around if you will or if you won't
A thousand conversations, nothing ever changes
But I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't

Calling it a problem when it's really just a lack of thought
You live inside your own world, I'm never gonna be your dog
You got these expectations everyone would walk the line
But I'll never be the baby to someone who loves to lie

Who who who
Who who who

But I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't
Circling around if you will or if you won't
A thousand conversations, nothing ever changes
But I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't

But I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't
But I'm damned if I do and I'm damned if I don't
